1. Public	Both supported and objected. Regrettably I find that I have to support the demolition of the old Uniting Church. Personally, I would've liked to have seen it relocated. It would have made a lovely feature along the walkway around Yarling Brook and added another part of our local history for tourists and future generations to see how pioneers lives were lived. I believe the current state of the building is beyond repair and somewhat a danger during our wild winds and storms. I do have some suggestions that will help keep some of the history of the church. They are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Commemorative plaque – on the verge in front of current site. • Urge to have as many photographs taken of the church, as it stands today and during demolition, for our historical records. • Salvage anything that can be salvaged, the pressed tin, the timber, window frames etc. These could then be turned into artwork, perhaps some around the heritage trail, others within buildings around the community. 	Noted. Noted. Relocation would be expensive, risky and result in a decrease in authenticity. The danger of the current state of the building has been recognised on site visits. A commemorative plaque is a suitable solution. This is an important step in ensuring the heritage of the building is recorded. Donation of materials will be up to the applicant/owner.	No change. Demolition of the building will solve this issue. It is recommended that the Shire install a plaque. Not to be included in any planning conditions. Photography of the building to be included in the planning conditions. Donations from the applicant/owner will be welcomed by the Shire. No condition imposed.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A sign made with an image of the church and a brief history. Perhaps a window frame could be used to frame such a sign. • I think there is an old oak cupboard inside, this could be donated to a community group or building in the Shire. 	A commemorative plaque is a suitable solution and an image of the church as well as a brief description would be beneficial and valid inclusions. Donation of materials will be up to the applicant/owner.	It is recommended that the Shire install a plaque.
