I have lived in Wickepin for the past 4 years, moving here from Dumbleyung in 2021. My wife Lynda and I felt so welcomed by the Wickepin community that we decided to build our dream home in town and stay. We have 5 adult children and 3 small grandchildren, and I am eager to contribute my experience to our local community.

My professional life was dedicated to serving the state of WA for 42 years as a police officer. During my career, I gained broad experience working in Perth and various regional locations, serving in many different aspects of policing. This has given me a deep understanding of the diverse needs and challenges facing communities across the state.

I am committed to bringing an open and positive mindset, along with fresh ideas, to the Council. I believe my extensive experience in public service and my unique perspective will be invaluable in assisting with the growth and development of the Wickepin community.
