Vale Barry Douglas Corke

Deepest sympathy to the Corke family and the many friends of Barry, who passed away suddenly in early January 2019. A private funeral was held, followed by an open invitation to all, to gather at the OBH in Cottesloe to celebrate his life. A large crowd gathered to honour Barry at a very appropriate venue overlooking the beach that he loved and had spent a lot of time. Family and friends spoke and the following eulogy was read.....

Barry was born in 1955 at St Anne's Hospital in Mount Lawley to Doug and Mulvie Corke, and returned to the farm at Yealering where his older sister Janie looked forward to his arrival.

He, with his sisters Janie and Alison and brothers, Lindsay and Alan went to the Yealering School then to High School in Narrogin.

Weekends were busy and never long enough. Football matches in winter, tennis in summer, when all the kids got together while parents were otherwise occupied.

After the winter rains the creek below the house filled and became a special playground. A chance to try out homemade canoes, catch tadpoles and spend happy hours along the banks.

School days over, Barry came happily home to the farm where he worked with Doug and for a few years with his beloved Grandad Harold. They spent many happy hours in the old ute, bumping over the paddocks of Rolvenden.

He loved the animals and they responded to his care and affection.

Great fun was had when bat and ball and wooden box appeared for a game of backyard cricket with Harold, a keen player, trying to control the lot and settle disputes. They were sometimes joined by cousins Harold, Brian and Ross Poultney. Harold kept a bat and ball in his office, and didn't take much persuading when a game was suggested.

Yealering Lake was a great playground too and in the later years Barry canoed over its water and swamps capturing the graceful black swans and other wildlife on film.

School holidays were spent mainly at Cottesloe- happy times at the beach and river where Doug taught Barry to swim. He was a reluctant starter but that changed when he took to scuba diving and developed a passion for the sea. That combined with photography, opened up a whole new world.

His subjects were many and varied- the ocean, world of whales, happy occasions such as weddings, parties, school balls, sporting events and rodeos. Then the more sedate carriage driving and military displays, each receiving his undivided attention.

Barry chose to live alone and sadly died alone. But part of him will live forever in the wide blue ocean, carefree summer days, changing seasons on the farm and in a long yarn over a cup of tea and a favourite Anzac biscuit.

An amazing 2 letter English word.

A reminder that one word in the English language that can be a noun, verb, adjective, adverb and preposition.

UP

This two-letter word in English has more meanings than any other two-letter word, and that word is 'UP.' It is listed in the dictionary as an [adv.], [prep.], [adj.], [n], [v].

It's easy to understand UP, meaning toward the sky or at the top of the list, but when we awaken in the morning, why do we wake UP?

At a meeting, why does a topic come UP? Why do we speak UP, and why are the officers UP for election and why is it UP to the secretary to write UP a report? We call UP our friends, brighten UP a room, polish UP the silver, warm UP the leftovers and clean UP the kitchen. We lock UP the house and fix UP the old car.

At other times, this little word has real special meaning. People stir UP trouble, line UP for tickets, work UP an appetite, and think UP excuses.

To be dressed is one thing but to be dressed UP is special.

And this UP is confusing: A drain must be opened UP because it is stopped UP.

We open UP a store in the morning, but we close it UP at night. We seem to be pretty mixed UP about UP!

To be knowledgeable about the proper uses of UP, look UP the word UP in the dictionary. In a desk-sized dictionary, it takes UP almost 1/4 of the page and can add UP to about thirty definitions.

If you are UP to it, you might try building UP a list of the many ways UP is used. It will take UP a lot of your time, but if you don't give UP, you may wind UP with a hundred or more.

When it threatens to rain, we say it is clouding UP. When the sun comes out, we say it is clearing UP. When it rains, the earth soaks it UP. When it does not rain for a while, things dry UP. One could go on and on, but I'll wrap it UP, for now . . my time is UP!

Oh . . . one more thing: What is the first thing you do in the morning and the last thing you do at night?

U

P!

Did that one crack you UP?
